THE CONVERTS STILL COMING

NOBLESVILLE AND FRANKLIN.

Remarkable Crowds at Rallies in Huntington, Montpelier, Greensburg and Other Places.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., Oct. 29.-Free speech is an unheard-of right in Van Buren townthip, in this county, where the Democrats are proud to declare that no Republican | gold on protective or sound-money ideas thrive. Two weeks ago a Republican meeting was held on the edge of the district, and would have been broken up had it not been writer of legal works, and C. M. Ratliff | tickets. were billed to speak at Farrville, the center of the Democratic district., The meeting was permitted to close without any special demonstration against the speakers. Sheriff A. C. Alexander and John Watts, city clerk, accompanied the speakers, and when a few rods away from the house the carriage was pelted with a shower of carriage was pelted with a shower of stones, one striking Sheriff Alexander, knocking him senseless. He was taken back to Farrville, where a physician was summoned, and five stitches were taken in the wound. He was then brought to Marion in a specially prepared buggy. Today he is resting easily and will be around in a few days. Local Democrats pronounce it the worst feature of the campaign, and say the attack was unwarranted and will lose them many votes.

Destroying Property of Republicans. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 29,-Wednesday evening, while the family of S. F. Johnson was in town attending the Republican rally, some one set fire to their farm meadow. The field, including 160 rods of fence, was destroyed. The same evening a large McKinley pole, the largest in Clay township, was cut down and destroyed. This was not the work of Republicans, for they were all in town attending the rally. Similar outrages are reported in other parts

MORE SOUND-MONEY CONVERTS. Prof. E. A. Schultze and J. H. Daily Join the Mckinley Party.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29 .- Two notable desertions from the Popocratic party are just made public here that carry consternation into the ranks of the enemy. They are Prof. E. A. Schultze, principal of the Noblesville High School, and Mr. J. H. Daily, a mechanic in the carriage factory of Heylmann & Sons. These gentlemen represent the best element of their respective clases, and both have always been Democrats. Professor Schultze has this to say in renouncing his party:

'I am against the Chicago ticket because I believe the continuity of our national life hinges upon the supremacy of the federal government, and the Chicago platform attacks this principle. Because I believe national honor to be the cardinal virtue of a people, and individual integrity to be the greatest ornament of a man; and the Chicago platform advocates a financial policy that, in my judgment, is a menace to the one and an insult to the other. Because I believe that should the financial policy of this platform be put in operation it would bring about unparalleled hardships for the masses of our people. Finally, because I deem it to be not only the privilege, but the duty, of every citizen to rise above mere party ties and to vote for those principles that make for national and individual integrity and honor."

Mr. Daily states his case as follows: "In studying over the situation I have concluded that there is a cause for this lack of employment and I have further made up my mind that there is a remedy. That is, according to my honest, conscientious convictions, to vote for and elect Major McKinley, who has the confidence of the business and enterprising people of the country. His election, in my judgment, would be followed by a revival of prosperlity. Regardless of any issues, it is foolish to talk about having business without confidence."

REPUBLICANS IN OIL FIELD. Remarkable Demonstration in Honor of Henry at Montpeller.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MONTPELIER, Ind., Oct. 29,-Perhaps the most remarkable Republican celebration of the campaign in this part of the Sate occurred in this city to-day. Such an outpouring of people was never witnessed before in little Blackford. There were delegations from Muncie, Hartford City, Bluffton, Warren, Camden and other points within a radius of twenty-five miles, and it is estimated that fully 20,000 people took part in the rally. Montpelier is the hub of the great Indiana oil fields, and nearly the entire oil vote was in line for the sound-money candidate. The Republicans of this city rarely do things by halves, and they have every reason to be proud of what they accomplished to-day. They had four times as many people out as the Bryanites did two weeks ago, and they were of a more representative class. It was a memorable day with the McKinley hosts, and the great throng showed plainly by its actions that throng showed plainly by its actions that it was for henest money and protection, first, last and all the time. The principal feature of the day was a grand industrial parade participated in by over 4,000 people, it was four miss long vive to the grant to the principal of the state of the day was a grand industrial parade participated in by over 4,000 people, it was four miss long the principal of the grant pr parade participated in by over 4,000 people. It was four miles long and took an hour and fifteen minutes in passing a given point. There were six bands, seven drum corps, sixty-nige floats and 200 wagons and carriages in line. The parade surpassed anything of the kind ever attempted in this section. There were several floats with oil derricks and pumps in operation, and the oil flowing into the tanks. Every boiler shop in the city was represented, and on er shop in the city was represented, and on one boiler sixteen men were sitting around while another was at work. On one fide, while another was at work. On one float there was a large gas engine above which was the inscription "Bryan's only competitor." Along the business streets nearly every house was buried in flags. Hon. H. D. Estabrook, of Nebraska, and Hon. Charles L. Henry, of Anderson, spoke during the afternoon and they were heard by thousands. Hon. Charles W. Mackey, of New York, spoke to-night. of New York, spoke to-night.

"UNCLE DICK'S" ONLY SPEECH. The Republican Veteran Could Not

Let the Opportunity Pass. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 29 .- Colonel Thompson was the principal speaker at the afternoon meeting at the Wigwam at the big Republican demonstration yesterday. It was his first set speech this campaign. He has been present at many meetings, but on the advice of his family and friends has not taken active part in the campaign. This is his fifteenth presidential campaign, and he did not want to let it pass without making a speech. In one part of the speech yesterday he said that it seemed almost like sacrilege to associate Bryan with the great men who have occupied the White House, and that it filled him with horror to think that there should be a possibility of electing Bryan to succeed the long line of illustrious men who have been President. He spoke of him as "an adventurer from the West." Colonel Thompson was followed by Hon. H. M. Remmell, the Republican candidate for Governor of Arkansus this year.

The most holiceable feature of the even-ing parade was the first appearance of the Business Men's Club in a body. The club was organized only a few days ago, but the ranks were full last night. At the Wig-wam the Hon. D. P. Baldwin was the speaker. He spoke almost entirely on the money question. Gen. Robert Kennedy, ex-Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, was present, having been sent here by the national committee and arrived unexpectedly. The Railroad Men's Sound-money went to Effingham this afternoon, 1,500 strong. Vice President Brooks, of the Pennsylvania Company, spoke there tonight. Special trains were run from East St. Louis on the Vandalia and north and south on the Illinois Central. The sound-money club's locomotive will be in the parade at St. Louis Saturday.

THIRTY THOUSAND PEOPLE

Take Part in the Great Fairbanks Rally at Noblesville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29.-This has been the banner day of the Republicans of Hamilton county. Never in its history has lap, of Anderson. No attempt was made to there been such a crowd assembled. Thirty thousand people met here to-day to attend the county rally and hear Hon. Chas. NOTABLE CASES REPORTED FROM W. Fairbanks, of Indianapolis. Delegations were present from every township as well as from other counties. The Fairbanks Club, of Indianapolis, was represented and took part in the parade, which was four miles .cng, and had hundreds of floats, four, six and ten-horse wagons, bands, drum corps and novel features representing the issues of the campaign. A special feature was the "Noblesville Mint," operated by the molders of the McElwaine-Richards foundry. Dollars were made right on the wagon out of the bullion fron metal furnished by Tie Loy, a chinaman of this place. Another attractive display was one hundred representative business and professional men carrying gold umbrellas and wearing yellow chrysanthemums and a card with a penny attached, all representing a gold one-hundred-cent dollar. In the after-noon Hon, Charles W. Fairbanks addressed an immense crowd in the old fair grounds and created much enthusiasm by his earnest, logical speech. The "Old Shady Quartet' enlivened the occasion with campaign songs. The great rally was closed to-night known that there were several officers present in citizens' clothing. Last night Hon. George A. Henry, a well-known that admittance had to be secured by writer of legal works and C. M. Ratling.

ALL RECORDS BROKEN.

Republican Crowd at Greensburg Placed at 30,000.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENSBURG, Ind., Oct. 29,-All day yesterday the people of this place decorated their buildings with flags, bunting and Mc-Kinley pictures for to-day's rally. The whole town was awake early this morning with enthusiasm, the public square streaming with flags and bunting. Soon after daylight buggles decorated with flags commenced arriving from every direction, when by 10 o'clock fully 30,000 people were on the streets. By 10:30 o'clock delegations from Milford, Adams, St. Paul, Clarksburg, Kingston, New Point, Napoleon, Bates-ville, Letts Corner, Sandusky and Harris City had arrived. The procession formed took one hour and twenty-five minutes to pass a given point, 10,000 people being on horseback, in buggies and wagons; fully 2,000 were on horseback in one delegation. Many "take-offs" on Bryan and the Demo-cratic party were represented. One wagon drawn by a traction engine was built in the shape of a Pullman car, with a platform on which a speaker frequently appeared and made take-off speeches on Bryan. Once he refused to speak unless money to de-fray the expenses of the train was paid. The speaker was furnished with wind by means of a bellows. It was the largest crowd assembled in Greensburg since vast crowd was addressed by W. S. Ken-worthy, of Iowa. John Sheperd, a member of the Adams delegation, had his leg broken by the kick of a horse while en route to this place. To-night the streets were again crowded and Mr. Kenworthy made anoth-

Slack, son of General Slack. heretofore a prominent Democratic leader. but now a prominent sound-money man. An escort club of over one thousand voters, with bands and banners, conducted the carriage through the streets. Business houses and residences all over the city were handsomely decorated. The distinguished visi-tors spoke in the opera house and Clayton Hall, both meetings being in progress at the same time. Mr. Mount also addressed an overflow meeting on the streets. The halls were crowded to suffocation before the speaking began. The purpose had been to have only a mass meeting, but it ma-terialized into an old-fashioned rally. The speakers did a good deal of work for sound money and national integrity. Huntington county is solid for McKinley.

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS. Democrats Claim Republicans Are Trying to Buy Votes. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NORTH SALEM, Ind., Oct. 29 .- The Popocrats have stooped to libel and blackmail in Barnard, the north precinct in Jackson township of Putnam county. Yesterday William Ballenger, an irresponsible Popocrat of Barnard, made affidavits against R. E. Wynn, a blacksmith, and Charles Whitley, both Republicans and respectable citizens, charging them with at-tempting to buy his (Ballenger's) vote. This scheme has been cooking for three weeks, during which time it is claimed Ballenger has attempted to entangle no less than seven different Republicans in the voteseven different Republicans in the vote-buying scheme. The trial of the accused men will be held to-morrow morning and some rich developments are expected. In Barnard the Popocrats are about five to one against the Republicans, and they al-ways try to buildoze all honest voters at Blow for Johnson County Popocrats Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 29.-Richard M. Johnson, for years the Democratic leader of this county and one of the most prominent members of the party in southern Indiana,, and who at present, by Democratic appointment, holds the position of chief clerk in the office of the Auditor of the Postoffice Department, arrived home from Washington yesterday evening, to remain until after election. Heretofore remain until after election. Heretofore his homecoming at election time has given the Republicans no pleasure, but this year there is a change, he having announced to-day that he would vote for McKinley. The declaration came as a crushing blow to the free-silverites of this county. Following so closely the announcement by ex-Congressman Cooper, as it does, they are almost paralyzed. Mr. Jehnson was interviewed to-day, and said he was a Democrat and that the Democrats of the country are not led by John P. Altgeld or Jacob S. Coxey. He said the conspirators and revolutionists who nominated Bryan hope to be able to use the Democratic party 6,000,000 strong to make effective principles of the Populist party, and he was against such a sellout.

Landis's Strong Campaign.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29,-Hon. Charles B. Landis, the Republican candidate for Congressman in the Ninth district, spoke at Waynetown this afternoon and at Music Hall, in this city, this evening, Mr. Landis has made a strong canvass in this county, and it is sure that he will keep up his end of the string. This evening he was escorted from the hotel to the hall by 1,500 people in spite of the rain. It was the largest night meeting of the campaign, the largest night meeting of the campaign, Hundreds of people could not get into the hall, and an overflow meeting was held at the courthouse, where the people were addressed by Hon. F. E. Holloway, of Evansville, who entertained them until Mr. Landis arrived from his Music Hall meeting. So densely packed and crowded was the overflow meeting that Mr. Landis found it very difficult to reach the platform. He spoke another hour to the meeting, which spoke another hour to the meeting, which was one of the most enthusiastic receptions ever accorded a speaker in this city. This closes Mr. Landis's canvass in Montgomery county, with the assurance that the county will be found strong in the McKinley col-

Final Putnam County Rally. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 29,-The Republicans of Putnam county gave their last grand rally of the campaign to-day. For weeks the preparations had been in progress and the result was an immense outpouring of people from all parts of Putnam county. Delegations were present from Brazil, Danville and other neighboring cites and all the smaller towns in Putnam county. An immense parade was formed, consisting of bands, glee clubs, drum corps, long delegations of citizens, township delegations, carriages, horseship delegations, carriages, horse-back riders and nearly one hundred bicyclists. First voters' clubs were numerous and the parade in its entirety was several miles long. General J. G. Pitkin spoke at night and General Bussey in the afternoon, together with a number of local orators. The opera house, courthouse and public square were used for meetings. The meeting was the higgest political event meeting was the biggest political event given here for years and easily overshad-owed the Bryan day affair.

Closing Rally in Frankton.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKTON, Ind., Oct. 29 .- The campaign here was closed last night with an address to a crowded house by Mayor Dunhave any great demonstration, but the people showed their interest by packing the opera house to the doors. Mr. Dunlap said that it was too late to make any extended argument on the money question, but in his elequent way he showed the duty of every patriotic American citizen when he goes to the polls on next Tuesday morning. The Republicans here have never been so well organized as they are at present, and the Democrats are in confusion. J. M. Far-low, the leader of the silver party here, has so far lost interest in the result of Tuesday's balloting that he has accepted a negition as election judge in present. No. 2 position as election judge in precinct No. 2 thus leaving their forces without a leader on election day. The Republicans have made large gains, and are still making on election day.

Fusion Candidate Not Eligible.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29.-The Democrats of Hamilton and Tipton counties in falling down and worshiping at the feet of the Populists bave lost whatever little chance they had in this senatorial district. About ten days ago Daniel Gascho, Democrat, of Hamilton county, was taken off and Rev. Mr. Hawthorne, a Populist, of Tipton county, was made the candidate of the Popocrats for joint Senator. It has just come to light that Hawthorne is ineligible for the research for the reason that he has not lived in the district for one year. It is too late to remedy the mistake as the tickets are in process of printing. "Calamity Jim" Fippen, of Tipton, is beside himself with rage and the sky has a lurid appearance around his home and office.

Big Rally at Crothersville. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CROTHERSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29. - Today the Republicans held one of the grandest political rallies here Jackson county has ever seen. Large delegations were present from Marion township, Jennings county, Uniontown, Cana neighborhood, Brownstown, Tampico, Scottsburg, Austin, New Harmony, 'Arkansaw' and Little York. The Crothersville people made a fine display with a number of floats, and some of the visiting delegations had fine displays in the way of floats and large wagons. The crowd was estimated at 2.500. W. W. Lambert, of Columbus, and O. H. Montgomery, of Seymour, addressed the crowd at the Harvest Home fair grounds.

A Rushville Demonstration.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29 .- The Republicans of Rushville and vicinity held one of the greatest political demonstrations tonight that was ever seen in this city. A parade was formed, and over 1,500 persons business portion of the town were thronged with cheering people. The parade was headed by a number of wheelmen, and 150 women marched in the line. The bands from Glenwood, Mapilla, Rushville, Ander-sonville and the Knighstown drum corps took part. After the parade a large crowd assembled in the hall to hear Hon, John F. Joyce, a former Democrat.

Dr. Fairfield's Illustrated Speech.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 29 .- One of the best hits of the campaign was made last night by Dr. J. W. Fairfield, of this city, one of the leading practitioners and a stanch Republican. Dr. Fairfield illustrated his points and the errors of the free cartoons that wrought the audience to a high point of enthusiasm and each new one He was a forcible speaker as well and drove home many telling points. The idea was entirely new and introduced here for the first time in the history of political campaigns.

Last Rally at Edinburg. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal.

EDINBURG, Ind., Oct. 29.-The Republicans of Blue River township held a big rally this afternoon and to-night. This was intended simply as a local rally, yet the people turned out by thousands and made a very imposing demonstration. A large number of wagons, floats, banners, drum corps, horsemen, footmen and old soldiers took part in the parade. At 2 o'clock Hon. Firam Brownlee addressed the immense crowd. Several Democrats took part in the parade. Nalla Compton, of Tipton, addressed a crowded hall to-

Col. Hardy at Edwardsport. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

EDWARDSPORT, Ind., Oct. 29.-The largest political meeting here in many years was held by the Republicans last night. Congressman A. M. Hardy made the best speech that has been heard here. He was escorted to the stand by the fa-mous Vincennes Flambeau Club, which headed a torchlight procession one mile long. Delegations with bands were in the parade from Bicknell, Freelandsville and Sandborn, and a large delegation with a glee club came from Plainville. The crowd

Stereopticon in the Campaign.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 29.-A rousing Republican meeting was held at Lincoln Hall, here, last night. Hon. George W. Faris, candidate for re-election to Congress, made pleasing address which created much enthusiasm. The parade prior to the speak-ing consisted of about one thousand voters. After the speaking a stereopticon exhibition was given throwing large pictures of the Republican caldidates on canvas; also. excerpts from Ingersoll, Cockran and Har-

Mrs. Bryan Holds a Reception, and the Women of Chicago Struggle to See Her.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CHICAGO, Oct. 29.-Candidate Bryan umped aboard a special train this morning, took a ride through the northern portion of Illinois, made a number of speeches on the way, returned here at 7 o'clock tonight and finished his day's work by talking to nine crowds in the north and northwest parts of the city. Mr. Bryan's first speech this morning was made at Elgin, where he said: 'We are accused of stirring up discontent. My friends, because a physician points to a disease, that does not argue that he creates the disease. The disease is here and we simply point it out and you can shut your eyes to it if you will, but you cannot cure the disease by refusing to see it. My friends, this crusade has gone on, nation after nation has been forced to abandon silver and substitute gold and if they can win in this fight and throw the influence of this Nation on the side of the gold standard I ask you where again can the common people find a battle ground where they can ever have as much hope of success as they can have in America to-

At Belvidere there was a large crowd of people, most of whom were wearing yellow ribbons bearing the word "McKinley." Mr. Bryan was escorted to a platform a short distance from the train and delivered one of his usual speeches. At Rockford, where "Messiah" Schweinfurth has his "Heaven," there was a great throng of people. Mr. Bryan, in his speech, 'jumped" on Congressman Lathrop, in an effort to prove that he (Bryan) is not a demagogue, Anarchist or repudiator.

MRS. BRYAN'S RECEPTION.

The Clifton House, where Mr. Bryan received the news of his nomination by the Chicago convention, was where Mrs. Bryan to-night received the women of Chicago. Despite the rain and mud prevailing, for hours beforehand the spacious corridors and rotunda of the hotel were filled with the fair sex long in advance of the hour set for the reception, and the crowds stretched out into Monroe street and Wabash avenue before Mrs. Bryan arrived. The reception was scheduled to begin at 7:30 and last till 9 o'clock, but it was late when the Bryan train arrived from the day's trip through northern Illinois, and it was necessary to prolong the reception be-yond the appointed hour to give all an op-portunity to shake the hand of the wife of the nominee. Mrs. Bryan proved herself an adept at handshaking, passing the visitors along at an average of thirty to the minute. For each person she had a most winning smile as well as a friendly word or two and a warm, firm grasp of the hand. When it was all over she showed much less evidence of fatigue than the friends who evidence of fatigue than the friends who assisted her. MONEY WAS IN DEMAND

AND CALL LOAN RATES WENT UP AT NEW YORK YESTERDAY.

Fluctuations Were Rapid, and During the Flurry 100 Per Cent. Was Asked and 80 Bid.

the election was signalized in financial circles here to-day by a rapid and remarkable advance in the money market. Soon after the opening of the exchange for business to-day there was a great demand for call money, which opened at 10 per cent. ss, and he did the same at and 12 per cent. By leaps and bound At Wheaton it was evident from the cent. was demanded for call leans. The demand sent the rate up until late in the day, when 100 per cent, was asked and 80 bid. The first loan was made at 10 per to bid the rate up to 50 per cent. before he could secure the required accommodalight. As the demand for meney increased the price asked increased by tens-from 50 to 60, then to 70-until the maximum The immediate cause of the stringency was the calling of loans by some of the banks that wished to prepare themselves for possible large demands to-morrow. Loans made on Friday go over until Mon-day, according to the custom of the day, according to the custom of the street, although the banks legally have the right to call money on any day of the week. The banks, as a rule, are reserving their surplus funds for the accommodation of their regular customers, who are being supplied at 6 per cent. in proportion to the business done by them. The stringency was not especially due to shipments of funds to the interior, as the volume of this business has not ex-ceeded the average of last week. Bankers regular clients, and a sympathetic hardening influence on the market was exerted for cash gold. Bullion brokers advanced the commission premium on gold 3-16 per cent. to 14@% per cent. Predictions are current in the street of materially higher figures in money to-morrow, but some leading bankers express the opinion that the worst of the flurry has been seen. Money has not been so high since the Baring panics some years ago, when it went sky-

The Trustee (Lew Wallace, jr.) represented creditors for about thirty-five thousand dollars, and had contracted for the delivery of nearly twenty-five thousand dollars' worth of new goods.

In order to secure the store we bought out the judgment creditors and assumed the purchases of new goods made by Lew Wallace, ir. As we had offered $10,000 cash bonus we naturally preferred that. As we could not get it, we concluded to run out the stock and stand a loss, and Since March S, 1895. WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.-The Spanish minister, Dupuy de Lome, has returned to Washington after a three months' summer vacation in New England, and to-day called on Secretary Olney at the State Department. The minister's family and his large official staff returned with him, and the Spanish legation offices again are open. It is understood the minister's call on Mr. olney was without special significance.

SPAIN'S ARMY IN CUBA.

The military status in Cuba has undergone a complete change within recent days by the heavy augmentation of Spanish troops and the opening of an aggressive fall campaign. The Spanish forces arriving at Cuba from March 8, 1895, up to one month ago are placed at 165,551 men, distributed as follows: Forty-two generals, 638 chiefs, 5,884 officials and 158,987 soldiers, including infantry, cavairy, artillery and including infantry, cavairy, artillery and

Few Know About the Shakers

AN INTERESTING, GOD-FEARING PEO-PLE WHO HAVE GIVEN THE WORLD MANY IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES.

We may not accept their peculiar re ligious beliefs nor can we enter into the spirit of their sacrifices. It is not necessary to believe as they do, but we can and do respect their sincerity of purpose and the honor and uprightness which marks all their business dealings. The Shakers have always been successful inventors, and some of the greatest of the conveniences of the present day found origin in their settlements.

In one particular they excel all other men or classes of men, and that is in cultivation of medicinal herbs and plants and their preparation for use. They have made it a study for more than one hundred years. It is one of their peculiar industries. Their lives have been devoted to it.

Their latest and greatest achievement is the Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is not offered as a cure for all diseases. It does not pretend to be, but one disease it will cure, and that is indigestion. Sufferers who resort to its use have no long to wait to see the result. The effect is almost immediate. The first dose usual-ly gives relief and it continued a permanent cure will follow.

It not only contains already digested food, but it digests food as well, thus toning up the general system. An interesting pamphiet is now being issued by the Shakers and can be had for the asking at amost any drug store.

Try a twenty-five-cent bottle of Digestive Cordial and see what it will do for you.
